

RELIGIOUS DIPLOMACY: ON THE WAY TO THE ITALY 2021 G20 INTERFAITH FORUM

The two webinars will address the mobilisation of religion and belief actors for sustainable development. In a time of increasing interest for religious diplomacy, and against the background of the preparation of the Italy 2021 gathering of the G20 Interfaith Forum, we will discuss developments in the interaction between religion and diplomacy

May 4

4pm-6pm Central European Time

Sherrie Steiner and James Christie

will present and discuss their April 2021 book

Religious Soft Diplomacy and the United Nations

(Lexington Books)

Sherrie Steiner (Purdue University Fort Wayne)

James Christie (University of Winnipeg)

Members of the Advisory Board of the G20 Interfaith Forum

May 18

4pm-6pm Central European Time

Alberto Melloni

will present and discuss the

The G20 Interfaith Forum - Italy 2021

Alberto Melloni (Fondazione per le Scienze Religiose Giovanni XXIII)

Member of the Advisory Board of the G20 Interfaith Forum
Italian Convener of the G20 Interfaith Forum - Italy 2021
(Bologna, 12-14 September 2021)

Master in Public and Cultural Diplomacy, Course of Religious Diplomacy

The students:

Ayman ASSAF, Ernest Dan AZOBOR, Marialaura BALDINO, Chiara BONVENTO, Pierre BOUHIER-MAYEUR, Maddalena CASTELLI, Bianca CHELLINI, Meltemi DI BIASE, Christel HAIDAR, M. Hassan IQBAL, Martina LIMA, Enyue LIU, Federica MANFRÈ, Konstantina PILAFA, Gabriella QUATTROPANETTI, Anita SARNO, Martin SJÖBORG, Mira Manini TIWARI, Asena TOKALAK, Salome TSERETELI, Yueqi ZHAO

The teacher:

Marco Ventura (Università di Siena)

Chair of the G20 Interfaith Working Group on Research and Innovation for Science, Technology and Infrastructure

Info: marco.ventura@unisi.it

Secretariat: unieventi@unisi.it

The webinar will be online on Webex Platform

Modalities of participation will follow

www.congressi.unisi.it/religiousdiplomacy