

Corpora and Discourse* International Conference

The SiBol Group

Siena University

Pontignano Conference Centre

June 30-July 3, 2016

Final Programme

- Plenaries = 60 minutes (talk =45, questions=15)
- Plenarettes = 35 minutes (talk =25, questions=10)
- Talks = 30 minutes (talk =20, questions=10)
- Changeover = 5 minutes (between plenaries/plenarettes and parallels for room changing. Except on Saturday)

Thursday 30.06	Registration from 13:00
14:30 – 17:00	Festival of Methods  One research question, one corpus: How many answers?  Speakers: Vaclav Brezina, Mariavita Cambria, Anna Marchi, Tony McEnery, Svetlana Strinuk, Charlotte Taylor, Digital Humanities Group (Sara Tonelli), Marco Venuti
17:00 – 17:30	Coffee
17:30 - 17:40	Welcome

17:40– 19:10 Three talks	1) Ruth Breeze (Universidad di Navarra) Exploring the potential of semantic tagging for discourse analysis: Spain’s financial crisis in the British press in 2011-2014 2) Richard Chapman (Università di Ferrara) “And the moon is made of chess.” Thorny problems in small corpora. 3) Clyde Ancarno (King’s College London) Negotiating religious identities in multi-faith environments: Christians and Muslims in Yorubaland
20:00 -	Dinner
Friday 01.07
09:00 - 09:05	Welcome &amp; housekeeping
09:05 - 10:05 Plenary 1	Michael Stubbs (Trier) Two case studies of intertextuality: illustrations from Umberto Eco and Arthur Conan Doyle
10:10 - 10:45 1 Talk	Jane Johnson (Università di Bologna) “Let me explain....”: a corpus-assisted study of newspaper reports of terrorist attacks
10:45 – 11:15	Coffee
11:15 – 12:45 Parallel sessions

	Parallel session A Political discourse 1) Ana Ruiz-Sánchez, Vanessa Amessa, Manuel Alcántara-Plá (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid) Political Discourse in 140 characters: 2015 Spain General Election 2) Arnaud Vincent (Université Catholique de Louvain) Thou Shalt neither Buy nor Sell the Rhetorical God Gap Theory without Data! A Corpus-Assisted Discourse Study of the Religious Rhetoric of U.S. Presidential Candidates (1952-2008) 3) Hatice Celebi Corpus-Assisted Linguistics Informing Scale Development on “Intergenerational Solidarity”	Parallel session B Language learners and translation 1) Eric Nicaise (Université Catholique de Louvain) A corpus study of native and non-native teacher talk in the English foreign language classroom. Highlighting linguistic features of native-English teachers’ talk 2) Selahattin Yılmaz (Yıldız Technical University), Yasemin Bayyurt (Boğaziçi University), Leyla Martı (Boğaziçi A Contrastive Corpus-based Analysis of Reporting Verbs in Research Articles on Foreign Language Education by Native and Turkish Nonnative Writers of English - 3) Lawrence Cleary, (University of Limerick) Engineering students’ writing
--	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

12:45 - 13:20	Alison Duguid (Siena University)
---------------	----------------------------------

	Alan Partington (Bologna University) Forced lexical priming: cohesive harmony in adversarial political discourse, studies in intertextuality
13:30- 15:00	Lunch
15:00 - 16:30 Parallel sessions	Parallel session A Identities and representations 1) Kate Wind (Lancaster University) A Systematic Way of Analysing Socio-cognitive Representations in Narratives: Passages in which Sexual Identity Labels are Concentrated in a Corpus of Fiction 2) Łukasz Woźniakowski, (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan) Deviant behaviour and disordered inclination – representations of homosexuality and gay men and lesbians in the Catholic Church discourse. 3) Antonio Fruttaldo (Università di Napoli), Marco Venuti (Università di Catania) Signification spirals surrounding the US ruling on same-sex marriage: A discursive approach to news values and social media echo	Parallel session B Annotating discourse 1) Mohsen Khedri (University of Malaya) Authorial presence in academic discourse: A marker of discipline 2) Aleksandar Trklja (Exeter University), Benet Vincent (Coventry University) The fuzzy ground between intension and extension: annotating a corpus for hedging devices 3) Eva Triebel (Lancaster) Secondary corpora and the (critical) study of authentic language use. Theoretical, methodological and practical considerations, on the basis of a study of negative identifiers in online discussion forums

16:30 - 17:10	Coffee
17:10 - 17:45	Alison Sealey (University of Lancaster) and Stephen Bates (University of Birmingham) Doing Being the Prime Minister: A corpus-assisted analysis of Prime Minister's Questions
17:45 - 18:45	Plenary 2 Gerlinde Mautner (Vienna) Mad about Method: Challenges and Opportunities at the CDA/CL interface
18:45 – 18:55	Concluding remarks / announcements
19:30	Dinner
Saturday 02.07
09:00 - 10:00	Plenary 3 Michael Hoey (Liverpool) Lexical priming and patterns of lexis in text

10:05 - 11:05 2 talks	1) Sylvia Jaworska ,(Reading University), Karen Kinnloch (Lancaster University) Resisting bio-medicalisation of the mind? A corpus-assisted discourse study into the constructions of postnatal depression in personal online stories 2) Theng Theng Ong (Northumbria University) A multidisciplinary study of the construction of tragedy news. Coffee
11:05 - 11:35 11:35 - 13:35 Parallel sessions	Parallel session A Recent history 1) Nuria Lorenzo-Dus, (Swansea University), Matteo di Cristofaro, (Lancaster University), Minimum/living wage: A Corpus-Assisted Discourse Study of Influential Citizens in Twitter 2) Steve Marsh, (Cardiff University), Nuria Lorenzo-Dus, (Swansea University), Anna Marchi, (Bologna University) Churchill's 'Special Relationship': a Corpus-Assisted Discourse Approach	Parallel session B Grammar 1) Jong-Bok Kim (Kyung Hee University, Seoul) Discourse Functions in the Inverted Wh-exclamative Constructions: A Corpus-based Perspective 2) Sibel SÖĞÜT (Anadolu University) Ideology in the News Through Active, Passive and Nominalization: A Study on the Terrorist Attack in Ankara Reported in British and American Newspapers.

	3) Miguel-Ángel Benítez-Castro, (Universidad de Zaragoza) Encarnación Hidalgo-Tenorio (Universidad de Granada) "Most of the time I have cried bitter tears, especially when I had nobody, pain never goes away": A CADS analysis of the experiences of victims of Ireland's notorious Magdalene Laundries 4) Svetlana Strinyuk, National Research University Higher School of Economics (HSE) The Legitimation of the Conflict: Discourse Analysis of The Troubles Novels and The Irish Times Texts of the End of the XX Century	3) Georg Marko (Karl-Franzens-University, Graz) "The stepwise implementation of behaviour modification "A critical diachronic analysis of nominalization and its conceptual and sociocultural effects in medical prose from 1700 to the present 4) Raksangob Wijitsopon, (Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok) The lexis-grammar-text interface in literary discourse: Plural and general nouns in Jane Austen's Persuasion
13:45 - 15:00	Lunch
15:00 - 17:00 Parallel sessions	Parallel session A Discourse 1) Aleksandar Trklja, (University of Birmingham) Linguistic recursion in discourse 2) Michael Barlow (University of Auckland) The Frequency Distribution Of Semantic Elements In Newspaper Discourse	Parallel session B Austerity and risk 1) Daniel McDonald, Jens Zinn (Melbourne) Risk discourse in U.S. print news, 1987-2014 2) Olympia Tsaknaki (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki), Eleni Tziafa, (University of Athens) Juggling Politics and Austerity: A Political discourse analysis of Greek Parliamentary Debates

	3) Michael Pace-Sigge (University of Eastern Finland) Can Lexical Priming be detected in conversation turn-taking strategies? 4) Nele Pöldvere, Matteo Fuoli, Carita Paradis (Lund University) Combining corpus and experimental methods to gain new insights into APPRAISAL in spoken discourse	3) Deborah Orpin (University of Wolverhampton) 'Ordinary people' and risk discourse: the challenges of disambiguating voices in a corpus of online discussion forum threads 4) Carmen Dayrell (University of Lancaster), Marcus Muller (University of Heidelberg), M. Cristina Caimotto, (University of Turin), Scott Piao (University of Lancaster) Discourses around climate change in the news media
17:00 - 17:15	Coffee
17:15 - 18:15 Two talks	Non-human animals 1) Anda Drasoven, (King's College London) A cross-linguistic corpus-based study of the discursive representation of animals in the online press 2) Alison Sealey (Lancaster university)

	'I'm a champion of the cockroach' Identifying implicit and explicit attitudes in a topic-specific corpus
18:15 – 19:30	Round-up
19:30 -	Dinner
Sunday 03.07	Breakfast, farewells and departures